THIS DOCUMENT CONTAINS INFORMATION AFFECTING THE NATIONAL DEFENSE OF THE UNITED STATES, WITHIN THE MEANING OF TITLE 18, SECTIONS 793 AND 794, OF THE U.S. CODE, AS AMENDED. ITS TRANSMISSION OR REVELATION OF ITS CONTENTS TO OR RECEIPT BY AN UNAUTHORIZED PERSON IS PROHIBITED BY LAW. THE REPRODUCTION OF THIS FORM IS PROHIBITED.

THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION

1. The mill employs 1,250 workers and manufactures :
Cloth for men's and women's overcoats;
Cloth for men's and women's suits;
Woolen blankets;
Rugs;
Upholstery cloth.
Most of these items are exported to the USSR. All the items destined for the USSR are made of 100 per cent pure wool, whereas cloth produced for the domestic market is of inferior quality and contains, at the most, only 50 per cent wool.
2. The workers of the mill do not get fixed wages, but are paid in accordance with their individual output. The following list indicates the gross pay of some of the workers:

a.	Specialized mechanic:	1,000	- 1,100 forints per month
	Lathe operator:	750	- 1,000 forints
	Blacksmith:	850	- 1,000 forints
	Carpenter:	500	- 700 forints
	Weaver:	500	- 700 forints
	Spinner:	500	- 700 forints
	Driver (fixed salary):		600 forints
	Assistant driver (fixed salary):		570 forints

In order to earn this pay, these workers must work an average of 300 hours each month. The mill is closed on Sundays. Unskilled laborers receive a flat payment of 2.09 forints per hour-worked.

b. Salaries of white collar workers:

Administrative employees: 700 - 900 forints per month
Administrative chiefs: 1,500 - 1,800 forints

Both the white collar employees and the workers are entitled to buy items manufactured in the mill at a 15 per cent discount. These purchases, however, may not exceed 250 forints per year.

3. Officers of SOTEX are:

Manager: Kirochin, a Soviet citizen
Political Secretary of the mill: Teresa Rasztovecs a former textile worker.
Secretary of the Mill Commission: Mrs. Ferenc Radics, a former textile worker.
Chief of the Political Police in the mill: Dénes Takács, who is also in charge of the fire department.
Manager of the spinning department: Ferenc Freymayer, an ardent Communist.
Manager of the weaving department: László Vodrúg, a nominal member of the Communist Party.
Manager of the machine repair shop: Sándor Horváth, a nominal member of the Communist Party.
Manager of the dyeing department: Chemical engineer József Varga; he is anti-Communist, but still a nominal member of the Party.
Manager of the rug and upholstery cloth department: János Balla, a member of the Communist Party because of sheer necessity.

4. The mill is equipped with 80 double looms and turns out daily about:

1,200 meters of cloth for men's and women's suits;
600 meters of upholstery cloth;
200 woolen blankets;
350 square meters of rugs of various thicknesses.
